

1984 Girls State Championships

Basketball was staged in six classes for both boys and girls in 1983-84 and, for the first time, the state basketball tournament included both boys and girls during the same weekend. The boys and girls teams in Classes C2, D1, and D2 competed in the state tournament March 1-2-3, 1984, in Lincoln. The finals were played, six in one day, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Attendance was 39,588. Classes A, B, and C1 competed the following week, March 7-8-9. The finals again were at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Attendance was 72,224. In Class A, schools were divided into six districts with the district champion qualifying for the state tournament. A point system was used to select two additional qualifiers. In Class B, there were eight districts and the district tournament championship qualifiers for the state tournament. For the other four classes, there were 16 districts and two-team playoffs to determine the eight qualifiers in each class for the state tourney. Boys and girls games were scheduled within each district.
