1984

Basketball was staged in six classes for both boys and girls in 1983-1984 and, for the first time, the state basketball tournament included both boys and girls during the same weekend. The boys and girls teams in classes C2, D1, and D2 competed in the state tournament March 1-2-3, 1984, in Lincoln. The larger three classes—Classes A, B and C1—competed the following week, March 7-8-9.

In Class A, schools were divided into six districts with the district champion qualifying for the state tournament. A point system was used to select the two additional qualifiers. In Class B, there were eight districts and the district tournament championships qualifiers for the state tournament. For the other four classes, there were 16 districts and two-team playoffs to determine the eight qualifiers in each class for the state tournament. Boys and girls games were scheduled within each district. Total State Tournament Attendance was 111,812.
