Affiliate Officials

Officials living in and registered in Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, South Dakota and Wyoming may register in Nebraska by paying a $15.00 per sport registration fee to the NSAA office in Lincoln.

This reciprocity agreement applies to these states in the following sports:

Colorado	Iowa Girls	Kansas	South Dakota	Wyoming
Football	Volleyball	Football	Football	Football
Volleyball	Soccer	Volleyball	Volleyball	Volleyball
Softball	Basketball	Softball	Basketball	Basketball
Basketball	Softball	Basketball	Wrestling	Wrestling
Wrestling	Swim & Dive	Wrestling	Soccer	Soccer
Swim & Dive	Track & Field	Soccer	Track & Field	Swim & Dive
Soccer		Baseball		Track & Field
Baseball		Track & Field
Track & Field

Officials residing in these states who wish to officiate in other states in the agreement must first register with their own state association. They then must apply for membership at a reduced fee in the other states. Nebraska refers to this as an affiliate membership. Nebraska charges $15.00 per sport for affiliate membership.

If an official's home state association does not register officials in a particular sport then that official must register in Nebraska.

NSAA REGULATIONS GOVERNING OFFICIALS

In order to complete registration requirements, all officials must agree to abide by the following NSAA regulations:

1. Submit proper application fees and complete the NSAA officials' application form.
2. View a 2016-2017 NSAA online rules meeting for the sport the official desires to officiate.
3. Submit the online Part 1 test by the proper date and receive a passing score.
4. Only NSAA registered officials shall officiate varsity high school contests.
5. If any official fails to complete registration with the NSAA for 2016-2017 and does not notify schools with which he or she has varsity contracts, the official will not be allowed to register the following year.
6. Contracts.
 - a. Contracts shall be signed by all officials.
 - b. Substitutions shall not be made unless consent is received from competing schools.
 - c. In case of a broken contract, the amount of the fee, excluding mileage, shall be paid by the offending party to the offended party, except when a contract is broken because of reasons beyond the control of either party or by mutual consent.
 - d. If an official has been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude or has committed any act that subjects the NSAA or its member schools to public embarrassment or ridicule, the contract is null and void.
7. Comply with the NSAA regulations and Code of Ethics as presented in the 2016-2017 NSAA Officials' Manual. This manual is posted on the NSAA website.
