

2022 State Journalism Championship

#8 Newspaper News Writing

Time Limit – 1:15

Directions: Assume the role of reporter for a student newspaper. A group question-and-answer session will be conducted with the interviewee. The group interview will last 10 to 15 minutes. Prepare questions to ask and take notes on the responses. The interview may not be recorded. Entries will be evaluated on originality, reader appeal and interest.

When you are finished:

1. Type your first and last name at the top right of the paper.
2. Save your document as a PDF with the filename: yourfirstlastname_NPnews_Class
(For example: SusieSmith_NPnews_ClassA)
3. Notify the proctor when you are finished.

Jeff Stewart – General Manager North Fork Area Transit

- Non-profit organization located in Norfolk, Nebraska.
- All residents and visitors are welcome to ride.
- Provide public transit services:
 - TeleLift is our 24-hour schedule ahead, curb-to-curb service up to 30 miles around Norfolk.
 - ForkLift is our regularly scheduled bus service within Norfolk that offers two flex routes with a third coming this fall. In addition to waiting at a stop, riders can request curbside pickup in advance if they are within ¾-mile of the route.
 - ExpressLift (Coming Soon) will be our on-demand service, similar to Uber®. You can book your trip on a mobile device or call the office for a same-day ride.
- Free for these individuals:
 - Veterans with a military ID (Thanks to Norfolk Iron & Metal)
 - Youth -18 and under (Thanks to Healthy Blue)
 - Northeast Community College Students -beginning Fall '22 (Thanks to Northeast Community College)
 - Disability Attendants
- All vehicles are wheelchair accessible, with lifts and secure wheelchair tie-downs for a safe and secure ride.